Course

Descriptions

Core Courses

Doctrine 3: Man, Sin, and Salvation

We will delve into the Biblical Revelation in these areas and systematize the information so that we can get the full Bible perspective.

Text: Basic Theology, by Charles C. Ryrie

Instructor: Jim Hunter, Th.M.

Kingdom of God:

We will develop the Biblical view of what God has revealed concerning the kingdom of God in both the Old and New Testaments.

Text: The End Times by Herman Hoyt

Instructor: Jim Hunter, Th.M.

Personal Evangelism:

This course will explore the doctrinal foundations, spiritual preparation, individual motivation and possible methodologies for personal evangelism.

Text: Introduction to Evangelism by Alvin Reid

Instructor: Robert Allen, D.Min.

Electives

Acts (Part 1): “The book of Acts opens with a question about the kingdom of God and Christ’s empowering and commissioning the church, and it closes with the assurance that, even under arrest in Rome, Paul continued “preaching the kingdom of God ... unhindered” (Acts 28:31)” (Charles Swindoll). We will be looking at this fascinating book of transition and the practical applications for us as God continues to build His church as powered by the Holy Spirit.

Text: Swindoll’s Living Insights New Testament Commentary: Insights on Acts by Charles Swindoll

Instructor: Mark Monroe, BS (FBCS Secondary Teacher)

Philippians: An exposition of the Apostle Paul’s Letter to the church at Philippi

Text: TBD

Instructor: Mark Bruffey, Ph.D.
